DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE

McDermott Library

USAF ACADEMY, COLORADO

INTRODUCTION

This Special Bibliography Series, Number 108, "Dismantling Terrorism: Developing Actionable Solutions for Today's Plague of Violence" was developed by the McDermott Library's Social Sciences Bibliographer and Reference Librarian, Frances K. Scott, in support of the 50th annual Academy Assembly to be held at the United States Air Force Academy, 5 – 8 February 2008.

Within this year's topic the bibliography begins with: The Causes—origins, definitions, and ideologies; followed by The Distribution—violence and its spread; The Financing—public support, state support, and economics; The Groups and Networks; The Psychology—mental, threats, human rights; The Prevention; The Remedies—understandings, fixes, responses, reactions, and finally, The Violence—suicide bombers, and other methods. Most items cited in the bibliography are included in the McDermott Library's collections.

If you are a participant in this year's Academy Assembly, the Academy's oldest continuing annual event, we welcome you to your United States Air Force Academy. We hope that your stay in the Colorado Springs area will be rewarding and enjoyable and that you find this year's topic intellectually challenging.

We are pleased to make this bibliography available to other libraries free of charge as part of the Academy's gifts and exchanges program. Libraries wishing to receive this bibliography or to be on the permanent mailing list for future bibliographies should write to:
